EDITORIAL COMMENT

We hope that you will enjoy reading this packed edition. You will see that there is a lot of excitement around the Playing Fields at the moment - what with the work to create the new patio and the return of cricket to North Cave after too long an absence.

Wendy (Countryside Concerns P 18) mentioned that she didn't know what happened to earthworms in extremely wet / flood conditions. We have undertaken a little research and can reassure everyone that earthworms can cope very well in very wet conditions. Apparently they can absorb oxygen from the water and the damp conditions allow them to come to the surface and perhaps migrate. Whilst mole hills are viewed by some as an eyesore and nuisance, they actually tell us that the soil is healthy because the moles have a good supply of earthworms and earthworms are good for the soil because they aerate the ground and pull down rotting leaves etc into the ground and improve the nutrient levels, giving healthy grass. So let's celebrate earthworms!

We hope that you will have a lovely Easter and will find time to support the various charity walks and Cricket Coming Home.

If you move to another part of the country or undergo a change of personal circumstance u3a can be a great way to get to know new people in an un-pressurised, social setting.

Caves u3a's aim is to provide interesting things for older people to do in their free time. Over a lifetime many retired people have acquired interests that they would enjoy sharing.

To dispel some common misconceptions:

- There is no lower age limit; although most of our members have retired our activities take place in the daytime. If you are around you can join us, whatever your age.
- You don't need to have any academic qualifications. Although u3a is about learning in its broadest sense there is no classroom learning, no exams to sit and no qualifications to be gained. In u3a you learn by listening to other members and by taking part in activities that appeal to you personally.

- Although many members are bereaved or divorced we aren't a
- dating club. We're here to offer interesting activities which suit the needs and abilities of older people. All members are invited to share their knowledge and their life experiences.

We keep our basic membership cost low at only £15 a year so that everyone is able to take part. Many activities incur no further costs but our monthly meetings at Cave Castle cost £3 to cover the cost of a speaker, tea and biscuits.

Before deciding to join you can attend up to three sessions of your choice. On our website, link below, you will find the full range that we offer. To make contact you can send us a message via our Contacts page. If you prefer to contact us by phone please call Heather on 01430 424835.

North Cave in Bloom

North Cave in Bloom held our first meeting since the death of our much-loved Chairman Steve Skipsey, in February, when Cliff Robson was appointed as our new Chairman and we welcomed a new member, Martin Webster.

When the North Cave Bingo Team heard we were purchasing a seat in memory of Steve, they very kindly chose to donate their takings from the February Bingo Night to pay for the seat, as well as more bulbs and plants. It was a full house and raised an incredible £905, for which we are very grateful. A huge thank you to all the bingo players, all those who donated prizes/cash and especially the bingo team who made it all happen! The seat should be in place by the time you read this, on the grass area at the top of Blossoms Lane/Nordham facing down towards the Wetlands.

Many thanks also go to the North Cave WI ladies who have also shown their support and generosity, by paying for the two new trees planted on Blossoms Lane and given money towards wildflowers for the Millennium Walk, all in memory of Steve. Unfortunately, as the trees are planted on Highways land, we are not able to add memorial plaques.

The family of the late Ted Johnson kindly gave his funeral donations to NCIB to pay for a Rowan tree and wooden planter in his memory. We have permission from ERYC, to site these in the area of Ted's bungalow, Eastfield/Everthorpe Lane. A huge thank to John North for making our wooden planters.

We are a volunteer team of eight but we also have loyal residents who help whenever needed, for example, when the Millennium Walk needed attention in March. It was heartwarming to have so much help from the volunteers showing true community spirit, special thanks to Debs for the welcome cuppa and biscuits. The aconites, snowdrops, crocus and daffodils we have planted there are all giving a good show to brighten the days after the dull, wet winter we have suffered. It seems to be a very good year for daffodils, as around the whole village and in the planters, they are blooming really well, so we will be planting more in the Autumn.

For now, we hope you enjoy the sight of the wallflowers, 'Tête-à-tête' and tulips in the planters, then looking forward to warm, sunny days we will be replacing them with summer bedding plants from our local Sand Lane Garden Centre, these will include red geraniums and non-stop and trailing begonia.

North Cave in Bloom are very grateful for all the help we receive from our team of volunteers who clear, plant, weed etc., not forgetting our helpers who water and help to maintain our plants for us. If you would like to help us with planning, planting, or maintaining please contact our secretary Pauline Hornsey on 01430 424789 or email phornsey217@phornsey217.karoo.co.uk

In memory of Mr Steve Skipsey a memorial bench funded by NCIB will be placed on Blossom’s Lane. ERYC and the Parish Council have agreed to add this as an asset for community use.

Floral Display

This year’s summer display will concentrate in the centre of the village surrounding the Memorial. We are trying a change from the usual display through Westgate and Church Street to explore the best visual display possible for our village.

We are currently investigating improvement works on the circular paving stones that surround the memorial. There is some loose grouting in places due to frost damage, so hopefully by next Remembrance Day it will be repaired or replaced.

'The ambitious curriculum provides rich opportunities for pupils.'

SIAMS

In January, our school was visited by an inspector for our SIAMS inspection (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools). The inspection was extremely positive and highlighted the many strengths of which we are proud. This included celebrating the way in which our vision has helped create a 'transformational culture of inclusion and encouragement' and the way in which the children 'have a caring and thoughtful attitude towards their learning'. The report was a great reflection on the pupils, staff, governors and families that we serve. The full report can be found on our website or by visiting the Church of England website.

Curriculum Focus

This term, as part of our work in Design and Technology, each class has enjoyed learning about food and how it can be prepared. Supported by our cook, Miss Hurst, the children have enjoyed tasting a range of food, including a range of cheeses, pickles, olives and chives. The children have then worked together to produce food such as delicious sandwiches, scones, healthy wraps and fruit salads.

Wellbeing Ambassadors

This term, we have launched our 'Wellbeing Ambassadors' initiative. Our Wellbeing Ambassadors are a group of Year 6 children who have been trained by MIND to run lunchtime wellbeing activity groups and provide support to their peers. This has proved to be a popular and well supported initiative!

'Each person is celebrated, and their interests and talents are nurtured for the benefit of the whole school community.' (SIAMS Report 2024)

PATIO

If you have been on the Playing Fields recently you will have seen that work has started on the new patio. The benches on the wall of the building have been removed, the step has been broken out and the digger has been in to dig the foundations and start to spread the stone sub-base. Volunteers, supervised by Colin Clark, will continue with the next stages with the intention that the patio will be ready in time for North Cave Coal Exporters Cricket Club inaugural Cricket's Coming Home Gala Day.

The Playing Fields Association is very grateful to continue to receive generous donations from members of the community, the most recent including North Cave Bingo Team, Mr and Mrs Booth, Peter Atkin and the estate of Mrs Kathleen Boast, who died in October 2022. Kathleen was born in North Cave but left the village in 1955. She had various jobs including Hull Dock Labour Board, David Brown's Huddersfield and a few years at British Aerospace, Brough. She returned to the village in 1977 and lived on Newport Road. Kathleen wanted to leave something that would benefit the whole community in thanks for her happy life in the village. Her legacy will help us create a wonderful addition to the Sports Club facilities that will be there for everyone to enjoy when using the field. As we have said before, at the end of the project we plan to erect a plaque to commemorate all the people who have helped to make the patio area a reality including those who have so generously given their time and skills.

Having said that, we still need more help to make sure that this new facility is as good as we can make it. As little as £10 will cover the cost of a paving slab, or if you have more to spare then £25 for a sleeper, £65 for a fence post or £75 a fence panel. Once we have the surface we will also need more benches and tables, so however much or little you feel you can give - your contribution will be gratefully received and put to good use.

Cricket's Coming Home: Join North Cave Coal Exporters CC and England legend Jack Russell to celebrate new beginnings

Get ready to celebrate the return of cricket to North Cave! The newly formed North Cave Coal Exporters Cricket Club (NCCECC) is thrilled to announce its grand opening event - Cricket's Coming Home. The event kicks off at 10.30am on Saturday, 13th April, with guest of honour, the former England wicketkeeper, and now hugely respected artist, Jack Russell.

Cricket has not been played at North Cave's Church Street ground since 2019, when the former North Cave CC sadly folded, and absence has certainly made the North Cave community fonder.

NCCECC have enjoyed a fantastic welcome and support from everyone in North Cave, with lots of work behind the scenes to get the club and its facilities ready for the new season, which will see NCCECC first team play in Division One of the Yorkshire Premier League North for the first time.

NCCECC Chair, Andy Swallow, said: "Our club has been on a fantastic journey over the past couple of years, and I'm hugely proud of what we have achieved. The North Cave Playing Fields Trust and wider community could not have been more supportive and we can't wait for the season to begin.

"To show our appreciation, we would like to invite people from across the region to join us for Cricket's Coming Home, a grand opening event with guest of honour, Jack Russell - one of the finest wicketkeepers of his generation."

The day begins at 10.30am, with our first and second teams taking part in an inter-club T20 match. The match will be captured on canvas by Jack, and a print of the final painting will be displayed in the North Cave Social Club later in the year. Our guest of honour will formally open NCCECC in a ceremony at 1.30pm.

There will be lots more going on throughout the afternoon, including a barbecue, tombola, afternoon teas, cricket skills sessions and a juniors match, before we retire to the North Cave Social Club for a Q&A with Jack, hosted by cricket journalist and TV pundit Rory Dollard. Following the Q&A there'll be a fundraising auction, with a chance to bid on some fantastic cricket memorabilia, including paintings by Jack Russell and a bat signed by England batter Harry Brook.

All money raised on the day will support the work of the North Cave Playing Fields Trust and North Cave Coal Exporters CC, who have ambitious plans to improve the facilities at Church Street and support the development of cricket at all levels in North Cave.

To find out more about the day and NCCECC, please visit our social media channels on X, Facebook and Instagram - @NCaveCoalies

The Ups and Downs of Professional Sport

North Cave's Ted Jackson, National Senior Boxing Champion & England International, Turns Professional

Ted has recently turned professional boxer in the Middleweight category. As many will already know, he was due to make his professional debut in the Bolton Arena on December 1st 2023. Unfortunately, Ted sustained a fractured jaw in sparring two weeks prior to his debut, which served as a massive blow. Multiple blended meals later (inclusive of Christmas dinner!) together with enduring three months of recuperation, Ted has now returned to full time training in Newcastle.

Ted made the decision to train out of the famous Birtley Boxing Gym where he is part of an excellent professional 'stable'. He trains with his top-class team mates daily, with weekly sparring mostly coming from the GB Team. Ted turning to the professional ranks alongside such talent will only serve to push him on an upward trajectory.

Ted's amateur credentials are:

- X2 National titles
- X1 Senior National title
- X1 GB Tri Nations gold
- X1 GB Tri Nations silver
- X8 Yorkshire Champion
- Representing England x7 occasions

All this has paved the way for him to break through into the higher ranks of the professional world.

Ted already has fantastic support, which is evident to see from his ticket sales prior to his cancelled fight at Bolton Arena. Bus loads of people were prepared to make the journey across the other side of the country. Ted is grateful for such support and can't wait for his next confirmed fight. Equally Ted is really grateful for his established sponsorship and support - without which he wouldn't be able to commit to his full-time training in Newcastle.

To allow him to keep up his full-time training, Ted needs further sponsorship to allow him to establish himself in his 'fledgling' career.

The rewards of success in boxing are massive, but reaching that success is the hard bit. In Ted's words....

'I believe I have all the attributes to fight at the highest level and aim to become the first British, European, and World Champion from this area. High aspirations, but I have genuinely got that belief. I would invite all my friends, neighbours, residents of the village to follow and enjoy with me my journey in the boxing world.'

If there are any potential sponsors out there that would consider supporting Ted, please email him on the email address (below). Also, follow Ted on his journey by following the links below.

Drewton Beck, looking west, towards North Cave

Our first project to be put on the ground is at Drewton Beck. Our enormous thanks go to Hotham Estates and ERYC Estates for allowing us to work in this lovely part of the valley, which lies south-east of William's Den.

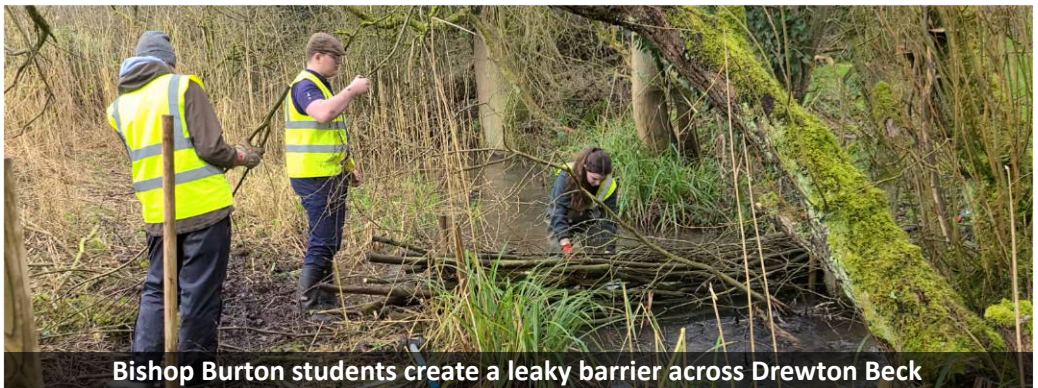

Thanks also to Mark Walker for taking the excellent drone shots over the valley before we started, and to East Yorkshire Rivers Trust (EYRT) for carrying out the work and supervising a team of students from Bishop Burton College

After nearly four years of discussions, planning, and negotiation (Spring 2020-2024), in March we took our first steps to create Natural Flood Management measures on site. East Yorkshire Rivers Trust (EYRT) were on-site at Drewton Beck, clearing some overgrown willows and scrub along the beck, to "sky-light" sections, to allow more light into the valley floor, to improve the biodiversity of the beck and its floodplain. Some of the cuttings were used, depending on their size, to form either brush piles for habitat, or to create leaky barriers along the beck, to help along what is already a very nicely natural area, giving it more "roughness" and resistance to the passage of water, by pushing storm water flows onto the floodplain.

EYRT then moved on to do some more clearance work at Prattwood in North Newbald.

Both of these were operations that needed to take place before the nesting season got properly underway. We are immensely grateful to the landowners and farmers for their cooperation and for being willing to share our vision – even if it isn't always clear just what that looks like! Next steps are to progress the plans for some more substantive works on four sites (Prattwood, another part of Drewton Beck, and Woodale and Millfield, Ellerker), working towards obtaining the necessary landowner and planning approvals, and other clearances, for earthworks and re-meandering of watercourses on those sites, to take place this coming summer. Full report on the work done here:

The WI have had a busy couple of months with a talk in February on Unst from Margaret one of our members. Unst is one of the northernmost Shetland islands and as well as a wide variety of wildlife even has a bus shelter with its own website!

Margaret shared a wide display of traditional crafts, widefield and landscape photos that she has collected over the years, as she has family ties to the island and visits regularly. It looks like a beautiful place to visit and we were all captivated by her talk.

In March we had an origami session with Nick Holmes who was a very amusing session battling with paper to create flapping birds and hearts! And here are some of our results:

Here is the template on how to make an origami heart if you fancy giving it a go!

How to Make an Origami Heart

1. Fold a square paper in half
2. Open up the fold
3. Fold the other half
4. Open it up
5. Fold along the upper imaginary dotted line
6. Fold along the lower dotted line
7. Fold along the dotted line to the right
8. Repeat with the left side
9. Flip the structure
10. Fold along the top right dotted line
11. Same goes for the left
12. Fold along the dotted line at the left edge
13. Repeat with the right side
14. Flip the paper form
15. The heart is made

Coming up over the next few months there's a talk from the Swan and Wildlife Rescue Hospital and Badger preservation society in April and then we are doing Lino printing in May.

There's plenty on with the WI café at the village hall on Mondays, walking netball; the book group and the Thursday Walkers so, if you fancy giving it a try, do contact one of the members or just drop in. We meet on the 1st Thursday of the month at 7:30 in the Village Hall. All ages and sizes welcome 😊

Countryside Concerns

It's so nice to see the countryside greening up at last and the blackthorn blossom has been amazing. It's just a pity that the weather itself isn't warm enough for the bees to take advantage of it, as most days are too cold for them to fly. Quite a few of our early spring flowers have come into bloom at least four to five weeks earlier than usual and, travelling round the countryside, I have been amazed at the number of snowdrops that have appeared this year and given so much pleasure to us all.

The birds are getting into their stride with the dawn chorus and the song thrush in the trees behind is usually the first one to start singing. It has to be one of my most favourite birds as they are decreasing in numbers, mainly due to the fact that most of the grass fields around us have been turned over to arable. Our resident flock of blackbirds are a continuing source of entertainment as they chase each other off the early morning offering of mealworms. Last year we hardly saw any of the Greenfinches that come to the sunflower feeders but I was pleased to see 7 of them this year - always squabbling with the Goldfinches for the best perch.

The fields around us are still very wet and some of them have had mini lakes in them for weeks. The farmers are struggling to find land dry enough to get a tractor on and have spent most time trimming hedges and digging the ditches out. The last 6 months of wet weather has also had a worrying effect on the worm population which is falling year on year. A study, done by Dr. J. Stroud, found few or no key types of earthworms in 40% of fields studied and put the results down to land disturbance, loss of food supply and too many predators. You only have to see a farmer ploughing to witness the vast number of birds following on behind, they must consume thousands. I would be very interested to know what happens to the worms in all the flooded fields, are they fast enough to escape to drier ground, do they go deeper or do they just drown?

With the improvement in the weather, the urge to get the compost and seed trays out becomes a temptation hard to resist; then comes the question of which compost to use - peat free or soil based?

A friend of mine handed me an article from a local publication about coir (the hairy outside of coconuts) and I found it a disturbing read. How many of us knew it takes 1,000 coconuts to make 10kg of coir; imported mainly from India, Thailand and Sri Lanka; the workforce, in some cases, provided by trained monkeys who are chained and kept in squalid conditions. Extracted coir is kept in tanks on the sides of riverbanks for 6 months (were it releases toxins like pectin, fats, tannins and bacteria (including salmonella), which pollute the river and end up in the sea) before being shipped half way round the world to Europe, to be mixed into peat-free compost for the horticultural trade.

Green waste also gets mixed into this which in itself can be full of weedkillers, microbes, sawdust, fungi and moulds. Manure also has animal antibiotics and various other medication digested by the animals.

OK, they will tell you it is all sterilised, but then they would! It's still a dilemma we need to think about, before we put our rubber gloves on! It's soil based, from my point of view, that we should plump for, so keep collecting the mole soil as well as making your own compost. I just hope my compost bin can keep up as I only empty it once a year and bag it up to keep for another 4 months before using it. Mine has lots of red worms, happy healthy red worms that have done a marvellous job of converting my veggie peelings, green waste, torn up cardboard rolls, prunings, etc. Lovely Jubbly! Happy Gardening.

NEWS FROM MIRES BECK NURSERY

WE'RE OPEN AGAIN!!!

We're open 7 days a week from 10 till 4, with a great range of plants - including over 70 new varieties of perennials.

HUGE THANKS GO TO.....

Wilkinson Sword who kindly donated a selection of hand tools to the nursery – as you can imagine, they'll get a lot of use!

Howdens Joinery who are manufacturing and kindly donating two fire doors for the offices at the back of the Oasis.

JOBS FOR APRIL

Flowers - Prune hydrangeas, cutting back the old stems to a healthy shoot lower down. Enjoy instant colour by planting primulas and polyanthus in pots and at the front of borders

Fruit & Veg - Sow outdoor varieties of tomatoes, chillies and courgettes in pots, so they're ready to plant out in late May or June. Sow herbs such as parsley, coriander, dill and chamomile in a sunny bed or container. Or better still, buy them from Mires Beck!!!

Greenhouse - Sow sweet peas in deep pots and keep them frost-free in a greenhouse or on a sunny window sill. Plant up hanging baskets and pots with summer bedding, but keep indoors until after the last frost

Garden Maintenance

Check that guttering on sheds and greenhouses is clear of debris, so that April showers will fill up water butts

Add new aquatic plants to ponds and divide established plants that have outgrown their baskets

Keep putting out food for birds, as they're busy raising their broods.

BUGS, BIRDS AND HOGS

We have a selection of bug hotels, bird boxes and hedgehog boxes for sale – all hand made here at the nursery.
